

Simulation 2 Results Summary

The spreadsheets here provide the results summary for the four different conditions explored in Simulation 2 (HighAND, LowAND, HighXOR, LowXOR). The first worksheet in each spreadsheet provides an overall summary of performance, including the relationship between perceptron weights and logistic regression coefficients, and the relationship between perceptron activity and reward likelihood. The remaining worksheets provide an account of each network trained on a particular netfile.