

12TH ANNUAL MEETING

JUNE 18, 19, 20, 21, 1980

COLES TOWER
BOWDOIN COLLEGE

THE CHEIRON SOCIETY

RAND B. EVANS
PROGRAM CHAIRMAN

WEDNESDAY, JUNE 18, 1980

6:00 - 8:00 PM REGISTRATION - Coles Tower Lobby
8:00 -10:00 PM RECEPTION - Coles Tower, Sixteenth Floor

THURSDAY, JUNE 19, 1980

8:45 - 9:00 AM WELCOME
9:00 -10:30 AM OPENING SESSION - Chair: Michael Sokal, Worcester
Polytechnic Institute

Raymond E. Fancher, York University

Biographical Sources of Francis Galton's Psychology

Fred H. Eidlin, University of Guelph

Subversive Implications for Rational Inquiry of Kuhn's Philosophy of Science: The Popperian Alternative

Ulfried Geuter, Freie Universität, Berlin

Constraints on the Discussion of History: German Post-War Treatment of Psychology under the Nazis

10:30-10:45 AM COFFEE BREAK

10:45-12:30 PM SECOND MORNING SESSION - Chair: David Leary, University of New Hampshire

Deborah F. Johnson, University of New Hampshire

Moral Concerns, Naturalistic Thought and the Development of James Ward's Psychology

Richard High, Lehigh University

The Unifying Theme in James's Theory of Perception in the Principles: Perceptual Realism

Kurt Danziger, York University

A Brief Reconsideration of the Role of Introspection in Early Experimental Psychology

Eugene Taylor, Countway Library of Medicine, Boston

"Exceptional Mental States", William James's Unpublished
Lowell Lectures of 1896

12:30 PM

LUNCH

2:00 - 3:30 PM

FIRST AFTERNOON SESSION: Chair: Frank Annunziata, Eisenhower College

Theodora J. Kalikow, Southeastern Massachusetts University

Konrad Lorenz on Human Nature: Ideology and Theory, 1938-1943

Pamela Loy, University of Hartford

Historical Factors Affecting Interdisciplinary Research Cooperation in Social Psychology

R. Fred Wacker, Wayne State University

Sociology at Harvard: Institutionalization and Ideas

3:30 - 3:45 PM

COFFEE BREAK

3:45 - 5:15 PM

SECOND AFTERNOON SESSION: Chair: Elizabeth S. Goodman
Fredonia State College

Joyce V. Cadwallader, Wisconsin Regional Primate Research Center, University of Wisconsin

American Psychology and Sex Differences 1880-1905

Lorenz J. Finison and Laurel Furumoto, Wellesley College

Status of Women in American Psychology, 1890-1940, or
On How to Win the Battles Yet Lose the War

Mary Jo Deegan, University of Nebraska, Lincoln

Sociology at Wellesley College: 1900-1919

5:30 PM

DINNER

7:30 - 9:30 PM

EVENING SESSION: Coles Tower, Sixteenth Floor

A discussion, similar in format to the luncheon discussion on historiography at last year's Cheiron meeting, to review the progress of Wednesday's workshop and to finish any incomplete business. This session is designed for those interested in a comparison of "critical histories" and does not presuppose attendance at the earlier workshop.

FRIDAY, JUNE 20, 1980

9:00 - 10:30 AM FIRST MORNING SESSION: Chair: Robert C. Davis, Case
Western Reserve University

Paul Tibbetts, University of Dayton

Ideal-type Analyses in Sociology: The Weber-Hempel Controversy

Alex Kozulin, Boston

The Origin of the Signals Systems Ideology Revised

Marcy Wagstaff, University of New Hampshire

Theodul  Ribot and the Emergence of le nouvelle Psychologie

10:30-10:45 AM COFFEE BREAK

10:45-12:30 PM SECOND MORNING SESSION: Chair: Robert T. Rieber, John Jay
College of Criminal Justice

Joseph L. Blau, Columbia University

Psychology in the Service of Theology: From Jonathan Edwards to Asa Burton

Karin Wetmore, Harvard University

Francis Bowen, Alford Professor of Moral Philosophy, and the Teaching of Psychology at Harvard (1853-1889)

Robert H. Wozniak, Teachers College, Columbia University

Metaphysics and Science, Reason and Reality: the Formative Period of James Mark Baldwin's Intellectual Development

12:30 P.M. LUNCH

2:00 - 3:30 PM FIRST AFTERNOON SESSION: Chair: Jacques M. Quen, Cornell
Medical School

Diane A. Puklin, Madison, Ct.

Medical Psychology in the Seventeenth Century: Thomas Willis and the Neurological Concept of Emotion

2:00 - 3:30 PM FIRST AFTERNOON SESSION CONTINUED

John Burnham, Ohio State University

The Founding of the Archives of Neurology and Psychiatry; or, What was Wrong with the Journal of Nervous and Mental Disease?

Marianne L. Teuber, Arlington, Mass.

Paul Klee - Between Art and Visual Science: A Documentation

3:30 - 3:45 PM COFFEE BREAK

3:45 - 5:15 PM SECOND AFTERNOON SESSION: Chair: Rand B. Evans, Texas A&M University

Sidney E. Zimbalist, University of Illinois (Chicago)

One Hundred Years of Research in Social Welfare in the United States: Some Trends and Issues

Eve Fine and Barry Mehler, Washington University, St. Louis

The American Eugenics Society: A Case Study in the Institutionalization of Scientific Racism

Russell Hollander, Saint Martin's College

Life at the Washington Asylum for the Insane 1871-1880

6:00 PM DOWN EAST LOBSTER BAKE

SATURDAY, JUNE 21, 1980

9:00 - 10:30 AM MORNING SESSION: Chair: Donald A. Charpentier, University of Wisconsin

Franz Samelson, Kansas State University

Early Behaviorism, Part 3: The Stalemate of the Twenties

Stephen R. Coleman, Cleveland State University

The Context of B. F. Skinner's Rejection of the Reflex in the 1930's

Laurence D. Smith, University of New Hampshire

Purpose and Cognition: The Limits of Neorealist Influence on Tolman's Psychology

10:30-10:45 AM COFFEE BREAK

10:45-12:00 BUSINESS MEETING

12:00 NOON LUNCH