

University of Windsor
1992 CHEIRON PROGRAM

THURSDAY JUNE 18, 1992

3:00 - 7:00: Registration - Vanier Lobby
7:30 - : Cocktail Reception - McPherson Alumni Lounge

FRIDAY JUNE 19, 1992

8:30 - 12:00: Registration

PAPER SESSION I - Chair: RAND EVANS

9:00-9:30

WOLFGANG G. BRINGNMANN

A Brief Handwritten Autobiography by Fechner

9:30-10:00

ADRIAN BROCK

What's in a Name? Völkerpsychologie and Social Psychology

COFFEE BREAK 10:00 - 10:30

INVITED ADDRESS - Chair and Introduction: BARBARA C. ROSS

10:30 - 12:00

DOROTHY ROSS

An Historian's View of American Social Science

Discussant: FRANK ANNUNZIATA

LUNCH 12:00 - 1:00

PAPER SESSION II - Chair: MARY J. WRIGHT

1:00 - 1:30

MARGERY B. FRANKLIN, DORIS B. WALLACE & ROBERT T. KEEGAN

The Observing Eye: Baby Diaries and the "Scientific" Study of the Child

1:30 - 2:00

KATHY MILAR

Helen Thompson Woolley and the Cincinnati Vocation Bureau

2:00 - 2:30

FRANZ SAMELSON

On Resurrecting the Reputation of Sir Cyril [Burt]

COFFEE BREAK 2:30 - 3:00

SYMPOSIUM - Psychology and Colonialism

3:00 - 5:00

Chair and Organiser: ADRIAN BROCK

Participants:

PAUL PROBST

Psychology and Colonialism in the Second German Empire

FLOYD W. RUDMIN

William McDougall in Colonial Borneo: An Early Applied
Social Psychology of Peace

MIHO HOTTA

Psychology and Colonialism in Japan

JOHANN LOUW

Psychology and Colonialism in South Africa Before
World War II

FATHALI M. MOGHADDAM

Is Everything Due to Colonialism? Psychological Barriers to the Development of Indigenous Third World Psychology,
Lessons from the History of Psychology in India,
China and Iran

SATURDAY JUNE 20, 1992

PAPER SESSION III - Chair: HORACE MARCHANT

9:00 - 9:30

ALFRED H. FUCHS

The Origin and Evolution of the First American Textbook in Psychology

9:30 - 10:00

WADE E. PICKREN

A Lamp Unto Our Feet, A Light Unto Our Way: New Psychology and Religion in Popular Periodicals, 1884-1905

COFFEE BREAK 10:00 - 10:30

PAPER SESSION IV

10:30 - 11:00

JOHN A. MILLS

Behaviorism in American Sociology, Economics & Political Science, 1897 to 1920

11:00 - 11:30

NADINE WEIDMAN

Lachley, Watson and the Meaning of Behaviorism

11:30 - 12:00

DONALD A. DEWSBURY

The Boys of Summer at The End of Summer: The Watson-Lashley
Correspondence of the 1950s

LUNCH 12:00 - 1:00

POSTER SESSION

1:00 - 2:30

COFFEE BREAK 2:30 - 3:00

SYMPOSIUM - Feminist Theory and the Historiography of the Social and Behavioral Sciences

3:00 - 5:00

Chair and Organiser - KATALIN DZINAS

Participants:

FRANCES CHERRY

Gordon Allport's "Letters From Jenny:" What We Can Learn from a Feminist Historical Reading

BETTY M. BAYER
Histories of Inclusion: The Importance of Gender to Small Group Research, 1940-1990
ELLEN HERMAN
Beyond Inclusion: Pushing the Limits of Feminist Historiography
LAUREL FURUMOTO
What Does It Mean to Do Feminist History of Psychology?

CHEIRON GENERAL MEETING 5:00 - 6:00

SUNDAY JUNE 21, 1992

PAPER SESSION V - Chair: WILLIAM WOODWARD

9:00 - 9:30

DAVID J. STALEY

Sociologies of Knowledge: The Rockefeller Foundation and the Resurrection of German Sociology

9:30 - 10:00

IAN NICHOLSON

Psychology and Social Reform, 1936-1945: The Case of Goodwin
B. Watson

COFFEE BREAK 10:00 - 10:30

SYMPOSIUM From Rhetoric to Investigative Practice: The Rise of Experimentation and Graduate Training in Social Psychology at Michigan After World War II

10:30 - 12:30

Chair and Organiser: IAN LUBEK

Participants:

ANDREW S. WINSTON

The Rhetoric of Early Experimental Social Psychology:
Something Borrowed or Something New?

HENDERIKUS STAM & IAN LUBEK

A Textual Analysis of the Development of Experimentation in Social Psychology

IAN LUBEK & HEATHER THOMS

Social Psychology at the University of Michigan and the Rise of Laboratory Experimental Methodology After World War II

Discussants:

DANIEL KATZ

Social Psychology at Michigan: A View from a Faculty Perspective

ALBERT PEPITONE

Social Psychology at Michigan: A View from a Graduate Student Turned Instructor

FRANZ SAMELSON

Social Psychology at Michigan: A view from a Graduate Student Turned Critical Historian

LUNCH 12:30 - 1:30

PRESENTERS IN POSTER SESSION Saturday, June 20th 1:00 - 2:30

CHARLES F. BLAICH

Historical Reasons for the Reluctance of Psychologists to Accept Theory of Natural Selection

JERZY BOBRYK

L. Wittgenstein and the Rise of Postmodern Philosophy

KATHY DZINAS

The Codification of 'APA Style' After World War II: A Contextual Analysis

YAAKOV GARB

A Theorized Life: The Reflexive Origins of Robert Merton's Later Sociological Work

ELIZABETH E. HUNT

Working Mothers and Mother's Work

LESZEK KOCZANOWICZ

G. H. Mead and L. S. Vygotski on Meaning and the Self

JENNIFER E. MACDONALD

Social Psychology in American Introductory Psychology Textbooks: 1880 to 1960

RICHARD B. MORRIS

Mary Calkins and Self-Psychology: An Asset to Introductory Psychology

STEWART PAGE

Experimenter Bias -- Reflections on the Half-Life of a Phenomenon

JAMES G. PAHARIK

Sociology, Value-Free, Activist, or Something In-Between?

HANS POLS

Psychology and Social Institutions

ALVIN H. SMITH

Audrey Mary Shuey (1900-1978) - Psychologist on the Fringe

AKAYSHA TANG

The Lost Voice from the Ching Dynasty

SANDRA WEBSTER

The Rhetoric of Realism: Consciousness in William and Henry James

POLYMNIA ZAGEFKA

The Concept of Work in French Post-War Sociology: 1945-1965